

How trustworthy is the Bible anyway?

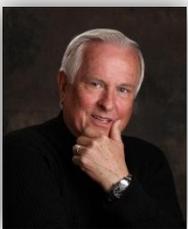

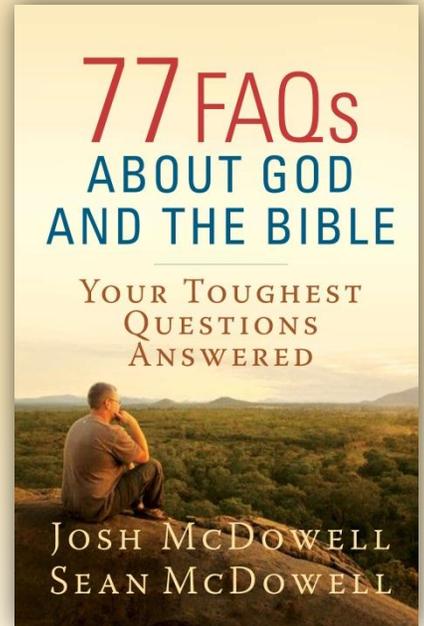

It's the most widely circulated book in history; written over 2,000 years ago and translated into more than 2,400 languages. Written by forty different authors from all walks of life—shepherds, soldiers, poets, scholars, servants, tax collectors, fishermen and tentmakers. They compiled it throughout the continents of Asia, Africa, and Europe. With so many ancient thoughts captured on so many ancient pages, can we trust that nothing has been lost along the way in the Bible's translation? Can we trust that the Bible we hold in our hands today still contains the original and inspired Word of God, and that nothing has been lost through the thousands of translations made through the centuries?

Josh and Sean McDowell not only believe the Bible is trustworthy, but they have compiled the answers to 77 more questions like this one in their newest book, 77 FAQs About God and the Bible. The McDowell's address the most thought-provoking questions they've heard through their many years in ministry, such as:

- Does God get involved with politics?
- What is God's church?
- Isn't the Bible full of contradictions?
- Why does God allow suffering?
- Why isn't God still inspiring people to write his Word today?

The McDowell's extensive research and insight provide solid answers that will help readers in their everyday lives. They share two generations of viewpoints in this handy reference that contains short answers, and is quick and easy to use. A valuable resource tool that gives the most vital information on the most frequently asked questions about our Bible today.

“When we see life and its dilemmas from a godlike viewpoint we gain insight and direction.”
—Sean McDowell

Over more than five decades, Josh McDowell has spoken to more than 10 million people in 118 countries about the evidence for Christianity. He has authored or coauthored more than 130 books (with more than 51 million copies in print), including The Unshakable Truth® and such classics as More Than a Carpenter and New Evidence That Demands a Verdict.

Sean McDowell is an educator and a popular speaker at schools, churches, and conferences nationwide. He is author of Ethix: Being Bold in a Whatever World, coauthor of The Unshakable Truth® and Understanding Intelligent Design. Sean has appeared as a guest on radio shows such as Focus on the Family, Point of View, Converse with Scholars, Stand to Reason as well as shows hosted by Hugh Hewitt, Frank Pastore, Michael Reagan, and many others. He is currently pursuing a PhD in apologetics and worldview studies.

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

- Why 77 FAQs? How did you come up with that number?
- There are many other books that provide answers to tough biblical questions. What makes 77 FAQ's unique?
- What was it like working together on this book? Did you have any questions where you didn't agree on the answers? If so, how did you resolve them?
- What do you each add, individually, to the book?
- You are both highly sought after speakers and teachers who travel all around the world. What are some of the most pressing questions people are asking today?
- Are Christians and non-Christians generally asking the same questions?
- What is the main message you want to communicate to your readers?
- What do you see as the greatest threat to the validity of the Bible today?
- Was there any particular question of the 77 that was the most challenging to answer?
- Is there one burning question that you wish you could ask God face to face?

ISBN: 978-0-7369-4924-8

August 2012 Release

5¼ x 8½ Trade

240 pgs.