Introduction

riend, I'm so glad you're here, and I can't wait to link arms with you in the sisterhood of rebellion against mediocre motherhood. The thing is, we all struggle with mediocrity (whether it's moments, days, or years) without Christ's work at power within us. But praise God He walks with us through each meltdown moment, each first-trimester fog of exhaustion, each carelessly spoken word—never condemning, always spurring us onward and upward in His strength.

In this M Is for Mama Study Guide, you'll receive practical, nitty-gritty, thought-provoking content in each chapter to help you glean more from the book and to really sink your teeth into what it means to live counterculturally in a time when it would be so much easier (not to mention celebrated!) to go with society's flow.

I've broken down each chapter into a series of key-point summaries, action steps, questions for reflection, and even a guided prayer.

You'll also have room to respond to prompts and journal a few things for each topic. And I've provided a QR code for access to accompanying video content from me for each chapter. This is the ideal companion to M Is for Mama (or MIFM for short) for gleaning maximum impact on an individual level.

However, I've also included discussion questions, which makes this guide the perfect tool to help you band together with kindred mamas who are also seeking to buck trends of apathy and resentment in motherhood. I have been so blessed to receive dozens of messages from mamas who have hosted MIFM book clubs (even before this study guide came out!) and who still meet with the mamas from their group. M Is for Mama has been the catalyst that helped them break through shyness or past rejection to find their "mama tribe"—a true "iron sharpening iron" band of sisters! (I've even been privileged to meet whole MIFM groups when they roadtripped to attend a book signing or other event—a huge thrill!)

Whether this guide serves you individually or collectively, I pray it enriches your experience with M Is for Mama—and that God uses it to draw you closer to Him and higher toward His calling for you as a mama.

The Culture of Mediocre Motherhood

EXAMINING THE ATTITUDES THAT KEEP US FROM CHRISTLIKE EXCELLENCE

he first chapter explores the attitudes that keep mamas stuck in a cycle of mediocrity—our current culture's standard—as opposed to striving for a Christlike view of motherhood. For mamas to be willing to choose to follow Christ's model for motherhood, they must first be able to see how the current culture is dragging them down into self-pity and complacency. Most importantly, they need to see the benefits of the Christlike model. Applying biblical wisdom to motherhood doesn't mean our lives will be a cakewalk. But it does mean we will be mothering "as unto the Lord," which brings the peace of knowing we are following in Christ's example—a practice that produces fruit in not only us but our children as well. That is a powerful incentive!

Read the examples of mediocre motherhood and Christlike motherhood in your book. Take some time to pray about the areas in which you might be embracing mediocre motherhood and record them here. Then reflect on what those same issues might look like through a lens of Christlike motherhood.

Action Steps

Memorize and meditate on Proverbs 11:14 (ESV): "Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety." One helpful way to memorize Scripture is to start by writing it down.

Lord, thank You for giving wisdom generously and without reproach to all who ask (James 1:5). May we turn to You each day in every area of our lives, including motherhood, recognizing that conformity to Christ is infinitely better than fitting in with the world.

No Two Good Mamas Look Alike

KICKING COMPARISON AND EMBRACING OUR GIFTINGS IN CHRIST

his chapter encourages mamas to celebrate each other's uniqueness and avoid falling into the traps of comparison and competition that lead to discouragement and isolation. When we understand that God gave each of us different strengths and weaknesses, not only does this free us up to experience the joy of camaraderie with other mamas but it also helps us see how He created us to serve and be served by others. We feel so much more capable of Christlike motherhood when we have a support system of other mamas to share in our journey.

Read the examples of mediocre motherhood and Christlike motherhood in your book. Take some time to pray about the areas in which you might be embracing mediocre motherhood and record them here. Then reflect on what those same issues might look like through a lens of Christlike motherhood.

Action Steps

Write out, memorize, and meditate on 2 Corinthians 10:12 (ESV): "Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding."

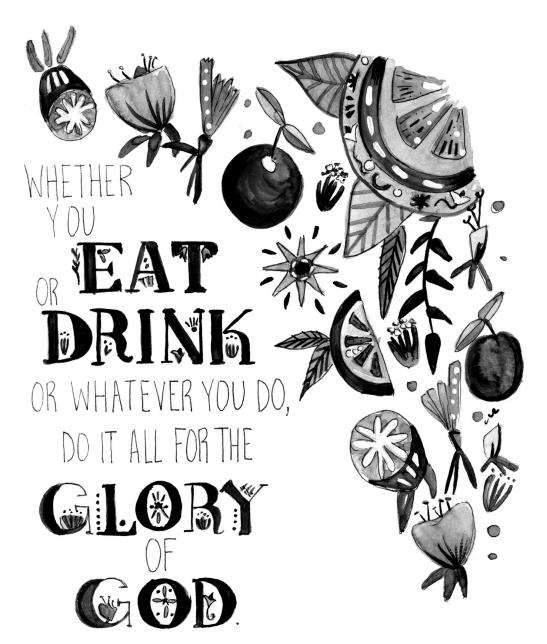

Make a list of three things the Lord has given you the ability to do well and three things you struggle with.

Lord, You say in Your Word that those who compare and measure themselves by others for their worth are not wise (2 Corinthians 10:12). Please help us to be grateful for the things You've made us good at and willing to work on the areas in which we struggle.
